

The Seventh Sense

Expanding Disability Literacy

Resources on Disability, the ADA and Employment

Department of Justice ADA Website

www.ada.gov

For requirements under the ADA and for clear explanations of various provisions of the ADA, this site offers information and links to helpful material.

ADA Information Line

800-514-0301 (voice) 800-514-0383 (TDD)

Office of Disability Employment Policy

www.dol.gov/odep/

This website provides information on employment policy issues for people with disabilities. It also has information on recruiting, hiring and retaining employees with disabilities. Categories include Youth, Employment Supports, and information on the workforce.

Job Accommodations Network

www.jan.wvu.edu/media/jobdescriptions.html

This site gives advice on accommodation implementation, model job interview procedures and associated materials.

Workforce One Centers

www.labor.state.ny.us/workforcenypartners/wfnyp\_index.shtm

This site provides information to businesses, workers and job seekers that will enable them to access and better understand the system. It also provides access to information, technical assistance, resources and funding opportunities that will enable local workforce investment area staff, one-stop partners and other workforce professionals to help build a better workforce development system.

Cornell Northeast ADA & IT Center

www.northeastada.org

This site includes relevant state and local laws and codes. The ADA & IT Center can provide an on-site Access Survey, has a technical support section, and supplies quarterly technical bulletins as well as other written material.

National Organization on Disability

www.nod.org

A general website on disability issues, national activity and accommodations.

New York State Commission on Human Rights

www.dhr.state.ny.us

This commission can help people with disabilities who think they may have been discriminated against in housing, employment and education. This is also a good website with information to help people with disabilities understand their rights.