

Lesson 24: Quiz 2 - First Person to Third Person

Directions: Change each of the underlined words from the first person to the third person by rewriting the sentences in the spaces below. Follow the examples.

Example: I can't make up my mind whether my red shirt looks better than my blue one.

She can't make up her mind whether her red shirt looks better than her blue one.

Or

He can't make up his mind whether his red shirt looks better than his blue one.

I ate the entire cake myself and now my stomach is upset.

1. _____ ate the entire cake _____ and now _____ stomach is upset.

What did I do with my keys? I thought I took them with me.

2. What did _____ do with _____ keys? _____ thought _____ took them with _____.

I really enjoyed myself on vacation and my credit card can prove it.

3. _____ really enjoyed _____ on vacation and _____ credit card can prove it.

I can't tell which suitcase is mine.

4. _____ can't tell which suitcase is _____.

My uncle is coming to visit me next week.

5. _____ uncle is coming to visit _____ next week.