

Lesson 17: Quiz 3 - How to Revise a Draft

Directions: Your turn: Now you do it. In Question 1 all of the sentences from the Draft Conclusion Paragraph are listed. Observe the Revised Conclusion Paragraph below the draft to help you. Place the proper number from the Revision Checklist in the line above the sentence in Question 1 that represents the rule from the Revision Checklist that the sentence represents.

Tip: Not all of the nine sentences in question 1 require a revision.

Draft Conclusion Paragraph

I am happy that I found Lucy and that I keep her. She is healthy and clean. The responsibilities are ok. It makes me feel good that shes safe and happy. She is a lot of fun and very friendly and very expensive. My friends say that their pets are expensive too but not the fish. Everyone likes her. Omar helps me take care of her. When she wags her tail I know she is saying "Thank you".

Revised Conclusion Paragraph

I am happy that I found Lucy and that I kept her. Now she is healthy and clean. The responsibilities are OK because Omar helps me. It makes me feel good that she's safe and happy. She is a lot of fun and very friendly. Everyone likes her. When she wags her tail I know she is saying "Thank you". I hug her and say, "Your welcome!"

I am happy that I found Lucy and that I keep her.
She is healthy and clean.
The responsibilities are ok.
It makes me feel good that shes safe and happy.

Lesson 17: Quiz 3 - How to Revise a Draft

She is a lot of fun and very friendly and very expensive.
My friends say that their pets are expensive too but not the fish.
Everyone likes her.
Omar helps me take care of her.
When she wags her tail I know she is saying "Thank you".