

Lesson 34: Quiz 10 - Revise Using Essay Scoring Rubric

Directions: Let's try revising Lee's conclusion paragraph.

- Find at least two changes needed in the draft underline them.
- Read the essay scoring rubric to guide you.
- Underline the part(s) of his original draft that you wish to change.
- Decide which part of the essay scoring rubric identified the error.
- Write the letter(s) that explain(s) the error above what you underlined.
- Use P (prompt) O (organization) D (development) S/G(sentences/grammar) W (word choice)
- Rewrite Lee's conclusion paragraph with your revisions
- Compare your revision to Lee's and explain how the rubric helped you with your revisions in the comment space provided.

Lee's Conclusion Paragraph 6 (Original Draft)

In conclusion, the schools can ensure that their students are served food that promotes healthy eating habits in many ways. Success can be achieved when the schools and the community work together. Remember health conscious kids mostly grow up to be health conscious parents.

Lee's Revision Conclusion Paragraph 6

In conclusion, the schools can ensure that their students are served food that promotes healthy eating habits by offering better menu choices, and making the students and their families aware of the importance of proper nutrition. Success can be achieved when the schools and the community work toward providing an environment that encourages eating right. In this way, health conscious kids can grow up to be health conscious parents.

Read the revised and the original draft. Then find one change needed in the original draft and write the sentence below. Read the essay scoring rubric to guide you.

Lesson 34: Quiz 10 - Revise Using Essay Scoring Rubric

Decide which part of the essay scoring rubric identified the error. Then Choose the letter that explains the error. Use P (prompt), O (organization), D (development), S/G (sentences/grammar) and W (word choice). And explain it in short.

Select one:

- a. S/G
- b. P
- c. O
- d. W
- e. D

Lee's Conclusion Paragraph 6 (Original Draft)

In conclusion, the schools can ensure that their students are served food that promotes healthy eating habits in many ways. Success can be achieved when the schools and the community work together. Remember health conscious kids mostly grow up to be health conscious parents.

Lee's Revision Conclusion Paragraph 6

In conclusion, the schools can ensure that their students are served food that promotes healthy eating habits by offering better menu choices, and making the students and their families aware of the importance of proper nutrition. Success can be achieved when the schools and the community work toward providing an environment that encourages eating right. In this way, health conscious kids can grow up to be health conscious parents.

Read the revised and the original draft. Then find one change needed in the original draft and write the sentence below. Read the essay scoring rubric to guide you.

Lesson 34: Quiz 10 - Revise Using Essay Scoring Rubric

Decide which part of the essay scoring rubric identified the error. Then Choose the letter that explains the error. Use P (prompt), O (organization), D (development), S/G (sentences/grammar) and W (word choice). And explain it in short.

Select one:

- a. S/G
- b. O
- c. W
- d. D
- e. P

Rewrite Lee's conclusion paragraph with your revisions:

Lesson 34: Quiz 10 - Revise Using Essay Scoring Rubric

Compare your revision to Lee's and explain how the rubric helped you with your revisions in the comment space below.

Lee's Revision Conclusion Paragraph 6

In conclusion, the schools can ensure that their students are served food that promotes healthy eating habits by offering better menu choices, and making the students and their families aware of the importance of proper nutrition. Success can be achieved when the schools and the community work toward providing an environment that encourages eating right. In this way, health conscious kids can grow up to be health conscious parents.