  - Use P (prompt) O (organization) D (development) S/G (sentences/grammar) W (word choice)

Example:

Paragraph 1 Introduction Revised

The schools should promote healthy eating habits for all students by taking several steps to ensure a proper diet. In many communities, children eat breakfast, lunch and afternoon snack at school, five days a week. It is very important that children develop proper nutrition from the beginning, and the schools can help in this effort.

appealing in appearance and taste. The responsibility of the schools is to educate the community, especially when it comes to healthy eating.

Paragraph 4 Revised

In addition to the selection of balanced meals with fresh fruits and vegetables, schools should make the food look appealing and taste good. Kids will try something that looks tasty. Dieticians can instruct the cafeteria workers to avoid overcooking, which causes foods to lose vitamins and taste, as well as look unappetizing. Steaming, baking or roasting gives foods a new and different texture, taste and appearance, making them kid friendly and kid healthy.

Lesson 34: Quiz 8 - Revise Using Essay Scoring Rubric

Paragraph 4 Original

In addition to the selection of balanced meals with fresh fruits and vegetables, it is important to make the food look appealing and taste good. Kids won't try something that looks nasty. The preparation of these foods should avoid deep frying. Overcooking makes the foods lose vitamins and taste, as well as looking unappetizing. Choose foods that are kid friendly, but prepare them kid healthy by steaming, baking or roasting.

Read the revised and the original draft. Then find one change needed in the original draft and write the sentence below. Read the essay scoring rubric to guide you.
