

What's Your Angle?

The measure of the first angle of an obtuse triangle is 2 times the measure of the second angle. Indicate what the measures of all three angles might be. Explain how you found your solution.