

Directions: Circle Tier 2 words and underline Tier 3 words.

The atmosphere is an ocean of air and a precious natural resource for sustaining life on the earth.

Unfortunately human activities based on national/personal interests are causing harm to this common resource, notably by depleting the fragile ozone layer, which acts as a protective shield for life on the Earth.